SUES SHERIFF C. F. EMERY

DEMANDS $20,000 FOR FOUR HOURS' DETENTION.

Sheriff C. Frank Emery and his bondsmen were made defendants in a suit for $20,000 damages filed in the district court yesterday by Mrs. Agnes G. Boley, who alleges that by reason of false and illegal detention by a deputy sheriff, her health was injured in that amount.

Sheriff Sebring of Weber county sent instructions to Sheriff Emery on Nov. 19, 1906, to arrest a man who was alleged to have stolen a team of horses and a wagon from Weber county and who was supposed to be traveling to Utah county.

A number of deputy sheriffs were sent out to look for the man, and Deputy Sheriff Rooth saw Boley and his wife and children in a wagon, answering the description of the stolen team, driving horses that looked like the stolen team, according to the description given by Sheriff Sebring. The outfit was found at the Point of the Mountain in this county, and Deputy Sheriff Rooth held Boley and his family until they could establish their identity. They were traveling from Weber county to their home near Provo.

As soon as Boley could establish his identity he was released.

The suit is the result of the detention of the family in the wagon for four hours by the deputy sheriff.

GROWS OUT OF STORM.

Damage Suit for $5,000 Instituted
by Mangus Hilquist.

Mangus Hilquist, living at Murray, filed a suit in the district court yesterday asking that he be given judgment for $5,000 damages against Charles Eichel, charging Eichel with having slandered the plaintiff.

A quantity of coal had been stolen from the yards of the Miller-Cahoon company at Murray, and Eichel is alleged to have made the following statement in the presence of a number of witnesses concerning the plaintiff: "I traced the boot track of your wheelbarrow right to your house, and I saw the coal in it, and I know you stole it from our yard."

Hilquist declares the statement to have been false and slanderous and he accordingly asks for damages.

SUES MORAN FOR $10,000.

John H. Latimer Demands Heavy
Damages for Injuries.

John H. Latimer filed suit in the district court yesterday asking for damages in the sum of $10,000 from P. J. Moran, general contractor. Latimer alleges that Moran had the contract for the construction of smelter buildings and plant at Gardfield, and that Latimer was employed as a carpenter on the scaffolding surrounding the great smoke flume. He alleges that by reason of faulty construction of the scaffolding and by reason of the fact that he was not warned of the great danger his occupation, he was injured by being thrown from the scaffolding on July 12, suffering cuts on his face, injuries to his neck, left shoulder and back. He was in the hospital two weeks, and asks for $10,000 damages.

O'DONNELL GETS $8,000.

Salt Lake Route Engineer Given
Heavy Damages.

Henry A. O'Donnell was given a verdict against the Salt Lake Route in the district court yesterday in the sum of $8,000 for personal injuries which he suffered last year by running into a washed-out bridge.

The suit was filed some time ago, and was before the court for several days. The jury was out nine days before returning with the verdict.

O'Donnell was an engineer employed handling freight trains in Nevada, and during the freights last year, ran into a washed-out bridge near Crystal, west of Caliente. The engine turned over, and he was caught under the cab. His leg was so badly crushed that amputation was necessary. O'Donnell asked for $30,000.

STILL AFTER JUSTICE DURAND.

Another Suit Filed Against Him in the District Court.

Justice of the Peace Charles H. Durand was made the defendant in another suit in the district court yesterday, in which a writ of prohibition was asked by R. J. Robinson. The cause of the suit is a number of others that have been filed against the justice of the peace during the last two months.

Robinson was sued for a small amount in January last, and a judgment was rendered against him Sept. 27, 1906. The suit was then discontinued, and Robinson was given a writ of prohibition against further procedure in the case. A temporary writ was issued by Judge T. D. Lewis.

FIVE DIVORCE DECREES.

Equity Division of the District Court
Grants Relief.

Five unhappily married couples were given relief yesterday in the equity division of the district court, Judge Morse signing five divorce decrees.

Florence Ruckley was given a decree from John L. Ruckley, on the ground of failure to provide and desertion. She was given the custody of one child, and a house and lot owned by the family.

Patrick O'Neill was granted an absolute separation from Ida O'Neill on the grounds of desertion.

Ola Barker was given an absolute divorce from Samuel Barker on grounds of desertion.

Norma A. Kent had sued George H. Kent for a divorce on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide. It was stated that they were married April 2, 1882, and that she was deserted by the defendant Aug. 1, 1894, and that since that time he had failed to provide for her. An absolute divorce was granted.

Notices and summons in the two last cases were made by publication. Judge Morse holding that the famous Hadcock case, which has set the bench of the country up by the ears since the opinion of the United States supreme court was handed down, does not apply in these cases.

The fifth divorce was granted to Sarah

GRANGE FAVORS TARIFF REFORM

Also Graduated Income Tax—
More Pure Food Legislation Is Demanded.

Denver, Nov. 23.—After sitting ten days and legislating upon many matters of importance to the million members of the National Grange, the fourth annual convention of the order finally adjourned this afternoon.

It was decided today to establish a paper, weekly, to be devoted entirely to the interests of the Grange. J. W. Darrow, of New York, who has been at the head of the publication bureau of the Grange for many years, is slated to be the editor.

Resolutions in favor of modifications of the tariff were adopted.

Tariff Revision.

Esposal of the cause of tariff revision was contained in the report of the committee on taxation, of which Obadiah Gardner, of Maine, is chairman, and former Governor Charles J. Folger, of Vermont, a member, which was adopted by the convention.

These recommendations are made in the report:

"That whenever any of our manufacturing industries are using the tariff laws to enable them to sell their surplus products in foreign markets at a less price than they are sold at home, thereby making our own people pay more for their goods by reason of competition being prohibited, we demand the revision of these laws along the lines that will prevent such abuses.

Graduated Income Tax.

"If it cannot be otherwise, we favor changing the constitution of the United States in order that a graduated income tax may be enacted, which we believe to be one of the most just and equitable of laws.

"We would advocate that all laws for the assessment of taxes in all the states of the union be made uniform, in so far as the manner of assessment and the basis of values is concerned.

"Property is property, and we believe everything that is classed as property should be taxed as such, therefore we favor a collateral inheritance tax law."

A resolution offered by J. A. Newcomb, of Colorado, endorsing the pure food laws already in force, and asking that there be still more national legislation along this line, was adopted. The same delegate presented a resolution in favor of equality of citizenship in men and women, which was adopted.

OUTLOOK NOT PROMISING.

San Francisco Sufferers Looking Up
German Insurance Companies.

Berling, Nov. 23.—Dr. Rosenstock, a representative of some of the San Francisco claimants, has had an interview with the president of the imperial insurance inspection bureau on the subject of the refusal of the various German insurance companies to pay their losses. The president could only promise to mediate between the parties, being unable to interfere with the decision of the courts. One of the great difficulties in the case is that the period under the German law in which such claims can be recovered expires April 1, 1907, and the time limit, under the circumstances, Dr. Rosenstock has proposed that the claimants present a liability company in Germany, transfer their claims to it and begin legal proceedings against the delinquent fire insurance companies.

GERMAN VESSEL DID NOT HEED THE SIGNAL

Cheerbourg, Nov. 22.—The preliminary investigation made by the captain of the port into the cause of the collision Wednesday night at this port between the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse and the British Royal mail steamer Orinoco, seems to establish the fact that the former vessel should have heeded the Orinoco's signal that she was going to starboard of the German ship.

The second and third class passengers of the Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse will be forwarded to New York by a special steamer which is now on her way here from Bremen.

E. Wilson from Hans Wilson. They were married in Nephi in 1882, and have four daughters, the custody of whom was given to the mother. The defendant, the plaintiff alleged was an habitual drunkard, and an absolute divorce was given her.

Three Boys in Trouble.

Francis Jameson, 12 years old; William Jettors, 11, and Clarence Houghton, 11, were committed to the state industrial school at Ogden by Willis Brown, judge of the juvenile court, yesterday. The boys were convicted of petty larceny, they having stolen three pairs of gloves from a department store, afterward selling them.

Walter Martin, 13 years old, was made a ward of the court for incorrigibility.

Wants Divorce and Alimony.

Mrs. Carrie Hummel filed suit for divorce from Robert Hummel in the district court yesterday, alleging desertion and failure to provide. Mrs. Hummel alleges in her complaint that they were married here Nov. 6, 1892, and that they have one child, Alice, 4 years old, whose custody the plaintiff asks. She also wants $25 per month alimony and $150 attorney's fees and costs.

Will File Amended Complaint.

In the case of Steve Lukie against the Southern Pacific, leave for time to file an amended complaint was asked for and the request was granted. The action was ordered continued at the plaintiff's cost. The case is one brought up in the circuit court.
